Release Artist:

Holocaos> Initially was an experimental music project from Paulo Miranda (father of Cauê Miranda) started around 1993. Old keyboards, bass, simple drum machine, weird sample slices, all recorded in tape without much options.

Around 2001 Holocaos project rise from the grave as an electronic music experiment in Cauê's hands.

The name "Holo" (Whole) + Caos = "Whole Chaos", "complete chaos" and the experimental background from initial project fit in the new ideas and computers use increase the possibilities.

Always with dark atmosphere and adding several different styles through the years, from psytech passing by lot of electro, techno, minimal, ebm, idm, industrial, maximal, disco, house, crunk, funk...

Actually presents an electronic music act trying to avoid classifications, offering a complete mix of influences in sound from dark tension to hypnotic melodies, from weird and bizarre sonorities to heavy and dry atmospheres, from mechanic robotic to fat funky, retro spacial, dirty ... Holocaos mix travel to diverse directions.

Playing for several years at Aldeia Tapai and in other parties like Spektro, Fazenda Mágica, Hypnotik, Electro4friends, Atlantis, Sumotronic, Manifesto Eletronico, Cosmic Projection, etc.

In 2007 had one track selected by Motomix festival in "new bands" project where had opportunity to open the night to Black Devil Disco Club at D-edge club in Sao Paulo and also stayed one week in studio with Click Box working the track to master it in a studio in New York.

Also in 2007 played at Universo Paralelo new years eve festival in Bahia presenting his live mix at minimal and alternative styles stage in the sunset !

As in his Holocaos set or in his Holocaos djset people can expect pass through diverse electronic music styles and substyles traveling in every new mix by different musical experiences. Holocaos.
